

Margaret O'Brien Retires; Decker Is New Postmaster

After serving Mokena for more than 33 years as its postmaster, Margaret O'Brien, of 11134 First St., has retired. She has been succeeded by Leonard Decker, of 20017 Scott St. He was sworn in as acting postmaster last Friday, Jan. 12.

The new postmaster was formerly a member of the Illinois State Police and was assigned to District 5, Joliet, where he served for eight years. For the past three years he has been on the security force at the Chicago Heights plant of the Ford Motor Co. He has a wife and five children. Mr. Decker is no stranger to postal work having once been employed in the Mokena office for a year as a substitute carrier.

Mrs. O'Brien, who has always lived in the area, was a niece of the late August Maue, superintendent of Will County schools for many years. She was appointed postmaster Aug. 1, 1934.

At that time the village of Mokena had a population of 350 and the combined population of the village and the rest of the area served by the posts office was 1,200, she recalls. Now the population served by the Mokena postoffice is 6,000, and the number of employees has grown to seven. When Mrs. O'Brien took the post there were three employees--herself, a clerk and a rural carrier. Now there are four clerks and two rural carriers and the postmaster.

The office had third class status when Mrs. O'Brien took over. It is now a second class office--almost first.

In November, 1963, Mrs. O'Brien was named a Citizen of the Year by the Mokena Chamber of Commerce and was honored at a dinner at Lincoln-Way High School.

Mrs. O'Brien was considering retirement last summer but it was not until October that she gave formal notice to that effect and asked to be relieved before Dec. 1 but with the Christmas mail coming up the department wasn't having any of that.

"I have enjoyed the work," Mrs. O'Brien said this week, "and have endeavored to serve the community to the best of my ability. I would like to take this opportunity to express my sincere appreciation for all the help and cooperation given me by the public."

L-Way Edges Eagle Five, 66-65

Lincoln-Way varsity five and the Sandburg Eagles had a meeting last week-end. Lincoln-Way was 13 down at the half but rallied in the final stanzas to nose out their hosts in the SWS conference by one point, 66 to 65.

This gave the Knights a 500 standing in the conference with three wins as against three defeats and an overall record of 7 and 6 for the season. The Sandburgs have now lost four conference games and have won two. Overall the Eagles are 6 and 7.

Lincoln-Way's Rick Kohl-bacher topped all hands in scoring with 22 points. Jim Fredin had 14, Pat McCabe 11, Palka 8, Mike McCabe 7, Webb 6, Smith 2 and Loucks 1.

On the Sandburg side Brian Taber had 16 points, Jim Gorney 14, Pnazeck and Mc Bride 13 each, Jaeger 8 and Richards 1.

Sandburg led 18 to 14 at the end of the first quarter and 44 to 31 at the half.

Then Lincoln-Way exploded for 27 points in the third quarter while the Eagles were picking up 11. The Knights outscored the host team in the final quarter, 18 to 10 but with 1:33 left on the clock the Eagles went out in front 65 to 64. Then with 50 seconds left Kohl-bacher drew a bead and the score was suddenly 66 to 65 Lincoln-Way. A separate shot in the final seconds failed and there was the ball game.

A thriller for the spectators, an ulcer maker for coaches.

Mokena Schools To Purchase New Bus

The Mokena Board of Education reviewed the school transportation system at its last regular meeting. It was reported that 430 public and parochial school pupils were riding the buses during the month of January. Four buses each with two routes are averaging 53 passengers per trip. It was agreed that a new 66-passenger bus should be purchased by September, 1968, to replace the old bus that had originally been purchased as surplus property from the federal government. Supt. James Ennis was instructed to notify school bus sales companies and ask them to submit bids by the next meeting, Wednesday, Jan. 24.

Traffic at Willowcrest School was a major topic of discussion. Charles Burkhardt, representing the school board at a traffic meeting the previous evening, reviewed some recommendations.

He reported that when meeting with a committee of the village board, Willowcrest Lane be widened and improved. Additional parking space should be made available on school property, possibly in the Southeast corner, near the Village Green Apartments. Extending 197th Street to the new parking lot was also discussed he said. The board reviewed the report with all various alternatives. It was agreed that either an entrance or an exit at 195th St. would be more desirable and helpful than extending 197th St. It was felt that the land that has been considered for future school purposes should be purchased. A road could then be built from Willowcrest to 195th St.

A committee of board members reported that they had met with the teacher salary committee and had heard their requests for next year. Negotiations are being continued and it is hoped that a decision could be made by Jan. 24.

900 after 12 years; the maximum salary for a teacher with 16 years experience and a master's degree is $10,400.

Beginning with the 1968-69 school year next September the Frankfort district will employ an administrative assistant on a half-time basis and will also hire a qualified school librarian on a half-time basis. The assistant will have his office at Chelsea School.

The next meeting of the board will be held at 7:30 p.m. Feb. 3 in the Frankfort

Frankfort Schools Hike Starting Pay

The Frankfort school board approved a new salary schedule for teachers at its last meeting, which it hopes will place the system on a competitive basis with other districts in hiring new personnel.

The schedule calls for a beginning salary of $6,200 for teachers with a bachelor degree and a starting figure of $6,700 for teachers with a master's.

Extra duty compensation categories were also revised.

In the salary schedule the maximum for a teacher with a bachelor degree is $8,-

At Long Last --- I-80 Now Open To Motoring Public

The transcontinental east-west expressway known as I-80, which has been completed now thru Illinois, was scheduled to be open to traffic yesterday, Jan. 17.

There were some ceremonies scheduled in the forenoon -- ribbon cutting, tree planting and such -- and after that some of the state brass and mayors and clerks of Mokena, New Lenox and Frankfort were slated to attend a luncheon near Hazel Crest.

This motorcade was scheduled to open the highway to traffic but the public would not be allowed on the expressway until noon or shortly thereafter.

I-80's last link built in Illinois was the 29-mile segment between Hazel Crest and Joliet. Some of the interchanges will not be completed until late this year or possibly next but in the meantime the highway can carry traffic, which is what the federal defense department wants it to do. The defense department wants a fast road between the east and west coast and figures it has it in I-80.

In the area cars can enter I-80 at Harlem Ave. on the west edge of Tinley Park, where a cloverleaf has been completed, and west of New Lenox on U.S. 30, where there is a fishhook type of junction involving some tricky cross traffic work. There is also an interchange with I-55 west of Joliet. A couple of interchanges are finished in Joliet, it was reported, but there are still some to be completed. Later this year or early the next there is to be a cloverleaf linking I-80 and U.S. 45 in the vicinity of 183rd St. U.S. 45 also is to be carried over the Rock Island tracks just north of 191st Street.

Three trees, one each for Mokena, New Lenox and Frankfort, were scheduled to have been planted near the U.S. 30 interchange. At the Cook County end of I-80 a dedication was to have been held at Kedzie Ave., with Mayor Richard Daly of Chicago in charge. There was no ceremony scheduled for the Tinley Park area.

Mayor Eric Book and Clerk Avin Sorensen, of Mokena; Mayor Joseph Hartung and Clerk Marjorie Wajchert, of New Lenox, and Mayor Glenn Warning and Clerk Walter Pfaff, of Frankfort took part in the tree planting.

It is expected that east-west inter and intra-state traffic will make use of I-80 which should relieve U.S. 30 of the big load it has been carrying.

It is reported that U.S. 30 will be widened west of Cicero Ave., but no definite plans have been announced. There are plans for improving the Gougar Rd. junction with U.S. 30 and local drivers that make use of U.S. 30 traveling to and from Joliet will be glad if something is done to eliminate the bottlenecks that develop at the Gougar Rd. signal lights. U.S. 30 traffic backs up for almost a mile east and west of Gougar in the morning and evening rush hours. It is not expected that I-80 will carry such traffic because any time that might be saved on the highway run would be lost in Joliet, it was pointed out.

It is the expectation of area leaders that I-80 will serve to develop the industrial prospects of the region.

Lincoln-Way Home Ec. Department Busy Place

Foods and clothing are vital areas of the home economics curriculum at Lincoln-Way. However, other important areas are also incorporated into the home economics program.

The freshmen and sophomore classes have studied units concerning management of resources, money, time, and energy. Each class will have a short unit in child development with the junior's and seniors having a specialized course next semester.

Another specialized course, clothing and textiles, is an advanced class in clothing construction. The girls are now preparing to make wool suits and dresses with special emphasis being given to matching plaids, linings, and tailoring techniques.

Housing and home furnishings has concluded floor plan evaluations and furniture arrangements and are now working with use of color, line, and design in the home. Their final project will be to draw their own house plan and sample decorate each room, plus estimating the final cost of the home.

The family living class has studied the family structure and dating-courtship system. The class held an interesting discussion with Rev. LaVerne Smith, St. Peter's United Church of Christ, and Father Koop, St. Mary's Rectory, concerning engagement and premarital counseling.

The Future Homemakers of America have an interesting year of activities planned around their main theme "Making Your Money Behave". The local chapter went to a fall rally at Carl Sandburg and were proud to have the most girls in attendance of 16 schools in the section.

Interior Design Corner DON'T BE A COWARD

In our interior planning work we often meet people who are apprehensive about using "color" in their homes. They become diehard conservatives when confronted with anything but beige tones. Yet, these same people often select cheerful, exciting colors in the clothes and accessories they wear. It is obvious that they sincerely enjoy color, but change their thinking when it pertains to their living quarters. After visiting with these people we frequently discover they are afraid they will "tire" of color in their homes.

Our approach in these instances is to first determine the customer's favorite color. We then study his room from several angles. Function, lighting, size and shape of room must all be considered along with that most important factor, the customer's color preference.

NOEL E. SMITH

We decorators must not forget the all important fact: this home, when completed, not only must serve all the needs of the customer, it must also reflect his tastes; not those of the decorator. Our job is to guide the balance and intensity of color in relation to room arrangement. There are several ways all rooms can be treated. It remains the decorator's duty to determine the correct approach for the particular job.

Don't chance a mistake when you next plan to decorate your home. Use our planning service. It is available to you at no charge beyond that of the merchandise selected.

Bolivian Artist To Have Stagg Exhibit

Bolivian artist Domingo Parada will exhibit his paintings at Amos Alonzo Stagg High School, 111th and Roberts Road, Palos Hills, from Jan. 21 to Jan. 28. Mr. Parada will be honored at a reception Sunday, Jan. 21, from 2 until 5 p.m. in the Commons Room of the school. The public is invited to meet and talk with the South American visitor, George Carroll, Stagg High's art department chairman said.

Critic Ernesto Lujan lists Parada as one of six principal artists who have revitalized Bolivian modern art, which developed in that country since about 1953. "They have revitalized the movement, assuring the plastic arts a future filled with promise for Latin America," Lujan said.

After graduating with distinction from the School of Plastic Arts of the University of St. Xavier in 1961, Parada exhibited his works in Bolivia and Brazil. He received the Gauguin Prize in 1964, awarded annually to an outstanding foreign artist working in Brazil. One of his canvasses, "Inquisition", was accepted at that time as part of the permanent collection of the Museum of Modern Art in Rio De Janeiro.

Since January of 1967, Parada has been living in Chicago and has exhibited at the Federal Savings and Loan Association in Hyde Park. His works form part of collections in the Museum of Charcas at Sucre, Bolivia; the Bolivian - American Center of Cochabamba, Bolivia; and the galleries of the Phillips Corporation, and of the "El Diario" newspaper in La Paz, Bolivia. His paintings are also part of private collections in Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Peru, Germany, Japan, the Dominican Republic, Paraguay, and the United States.

Find Paper Trove In Court House Cornerstone

Whoever packed the copper box deposited in the cornerstone of the third Will County court house which was laid July 4, 1884, was a good one.

There were 34 packets, tied and sealed, and all excellently preserved. The smallest and lightest item was a mini-mini tabloid called "The Weekly Budget," a shortlived publication and the largest and heaviest were copies of two histories of Will County by George H. Woodruff. A copy of the Joliet City Directory of 1884 also occupied space.

There were copies of all the papers published at that time in Joliet, including one in German, a picture of the second court house, a captain's badge from the penitentiary carrying the name of H. W. Cope, a catalog of the books in the prison library, a report of the prison commissioners, a report of the Oakwood cemetery directors, the names of the eight prisoners then in the county jail, the names of city and county officials and the membership of various organizations.

The cornerstone of the third court house was laid by members of the Masonic Fraternity in Joliet and among the deposits were lists of the members of the various Masonic bodies of Joliet.

There was a list of the petit and grand jurors, court calendars, a volume on his experiences in the Civil War by the late Circuit Judge A. O. Marshall, a Barrett Hardware Co. catalog, a McCormick Harvesting Co. catalog (in color), pictures of various officials, advertisements, business cards, a copy of the city dram shop ordinance (a saloon license cost $1,000), and other odds and ends.

One of the reports on file was that of the committee in charge of the celebration for July 4 1884. The committee was formed May 24 and planned to raise $2,000 to defray the costs of a general celebration. The committee met June 5 and reported only $1,124 had been raised.

Someone made a motion to extend the drive for funds to June 9 but the motion lost and apparently the committee cancelled plans to underwrite the celebration. Whether the $1,124 reported was in cash or pledges was not disclosed in the report nor was anything said about the final fate of the sum.

The copper box was opened Friday in the presence of County Chairman Roy Hassert, Mrs. William Limacher, Will County chairman of the state sesquicentennial celebration program, county office holders, and visitors. Mannequins were spotted here and there garbed in costumes of the 1800's, and members of the Joliet Woman's Club and the Catholic Woman's Club served as hostesses for those who toured the court house.

To Spend Over Billion On Construction

Commonwealth Edison Company Wednesday announced a $1,400,000,000 program of construction expenditures for the five-year, 1968 thru 1972, and said it plans to sell late this month $50,000,000 of 30-year first mortgage bonds to be applied to the program.

Details of the new construction program and financing plans were disclosed in a registration statement filed this morning with the Securities and Exchange Commission. A petition covering the proposed bond issue also is being filed with the Illinois Commerce Commission.

Chairman J. Harris Ward said the bonds would be sold thru competitive bidding, and depending on market conditions and Commission clearances, publicly offered on January 31.

According to Mr. Ward, Edison's construction expenditures by years are now estimated as follows: $310,000,000 in 1968; $310,000,000 in 1969; $295,000,000 in 1970; $270,000,000 in 1971; and $215,000,000 in 1972. The company's previous construction program, covering the year earlier 1967 - 71 period, called for an expenditure of $1,240,000,000. The Edison construction program is subject to continuous review and modification depending on changing business conditions, revisions in Federal income tax laws and variations in pricing and delivery schedules.

Mr. Ward said that under the program approximately 6 1/2 million kilowatts of new generating capability will be installed at Edison generating stations between now and 1973. The major portion of the new capacity will come from six new nuclear units under construction or on order.

The nuclear additions include two 809,000 kilowatt units under construction at Dresden station, near Morris, Ill., and two others of the same size at Quad-Cities station, a new plant being built near Cordova, Ill. Two 1,100,000 kilowatt units are planned for Zion nuclear station, on which construction is expected to start this year. Iowa - Illinois Gas and Electric Company will have a one-quarter ownership interest in the two-unit Quad-Cities project.

Edison this year will complete a second 600,000-kilowatt coal-fired unit at Kincaid mine-mouth station near Taylorville, Ill., and during 1968 and 1969 will place in service 884,000 kilowatts of fast start - up peaking capacity at various key stations.

The 1968 - 72 program for construction expenditures calls for outlays of $788,000,000 for electric generating facilities, $570,000,000 for electric transmission and distribution, and $42,000,000 for all other plant.

Joyce Lauffer Wed To James R. Burroughs

St. John's United Church of Christ, Mokena, was the setting for the wedding ceremony between Joyce Lauffer and James R. Burroughs.

Rev. Laslo Hunyady officiated at the double-ring candlelight service at 6 p.m., Nov. 25 for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lauffer of Tinley Park, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burroughs of Grayslake, Ill., and formerly of New Lenox.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a toetouching gown of white velvet. Medallions of Swiss lace defined the high rise of the bodice fashioned with a bateau neckline and long tapering sleeves. The A-line skirt was dramatized by a chapel train.

Her bouffant veil of imported silk illusion fell from a cluster of large velvet roses and she carried a cascade of phalaenopsis orchids and stephanotis entwined with ivy.

Mis Jeanne Mancke of Mokena was maid of honor. She wore a gown in a ruby red hue styled identically with the bride's. Her blusher well was caught to a ruby red velvet bow, and she carried a white fur muff accented by pink cabbage roses and rose buds.

Attired identically with the maid of honor were Mrs. Beverly Haas, matron of honor; Miss Carol Lauffer, Mrs. Arlene Switalski, Miss Gloria Rahm, and Carol Bettenhausen, bridesmaids; Jill Haas, candlelighter and junior bridesmaid, and Joy Haas, flower girl.

Bernie Wahl served the bridegroom as best man, and ushers were John Burroughs, brother of the bridegroom, Don Maurer, Bruce Zeich, Wayne Lauffer, brother of the bride, and Tim Burroughs, brother of the bridegroom, Jeffery Haas served as candlelighter and junior usher.

A wedding reception was served at the American Legion Hall, Tinley Park.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Lauffer chose a forest green velvet dress with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Burroughs, selected a dark red velvet frock with silver accessories. Both mothers wore white orchids corsages.

Mrs. Robert Lindberg presided at the organ, and Ellis Jones was the soloist.

After a week's honeymoon at Montego Bay, Jamaica, the new Mr. and Mrs. Burroughs are residing at 112 Center St.

Sunny Hill San. Fully Accredited

Sunny Hill Sanatorium has been fully accredited by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals. This is the highest honor a hospital can achieve. Requirements to meet accreditation are stiff, as the standards set by the Joint Board of Accreditation are extremely high. Dr. Wendell Wingett made the survey of the Sanatorium and recommended the Institution be accredited.

Sunny Hill Sanatorium opened in 1924 with 98 beds for tuberculosis patients. In recent years, 57 beds were set aside for a nursing home operated by the County Board of Supervisors. Forty-one beds have been retained for tuberculosis patients.

Dr. Arthur Fahrner is chairman of the Sunny Hill

Sanatorium Board; Dr. Gayle Hufford and James D. Hall are Trustees. Dr. Francis R. Prock is medical director of both the sanatorium and the nursing home. Dr. Robert Jensik is chief chest surgeon and consultant.

DIANE STEVENS -- Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Stevens, Palos Park, announce the engagement of their daughter, Diane, to Gerald Zinn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Zinn, of Chicago Ridge and formerly of Orland Park.

Diane is a 1965 graduate of Carl Sandburg High School and is a junior at Illinois State University majoring in special education.

Gerald is a 1962 graduate of Carl Sandburg and is enrolled at Illinois State University as a graduate assistant. The wedding has been set for Aug. 24.

Vehicle Tag Fees Double Feb 1

Village Clerk Walter Pfaff, of Frankfort, reminded residents owning automobiles that if they have not purchased village vehicle stickers the time is growing short.

Stickers purchased after Jan. 31 will cost double the current price. Pfaff also called on dog owners to pick up their tags before Feb. 1. The license fee for male and spayed female dogs is $2 and for females the price is $4. All dogs are also required to have anti-rabies shots.

Ordinarily the clerk's office is closed on Wednesday but on Jan. 31, Pfaff said, he will have his office open from 9 to 12 in the forenoon, 1 to 4 in the afternoon and from 6 to 9 o'clock in the evening to accommodate late applicants.

Select Committee To Name Junior College District 524

The monumental task of selecting an appropriate name for this area's new junior college, now in the process of being established, got underway recently with the appointment of a name selection committee comprised of citizens familiar with the district and its historical aspects.

The committee is headed by Frank A. Bella Jr. of Blue Island, a member of the board of Junior College District 524. The committee was appointed by the late Theodore Lownik, first board chairman, before his recent and untimely death. John Coghill of Orland Park, is the new board chairman.

Other members of the committee are Mrs. Robert Ihrig of Oak Lawn; Dr. Robert Krupp, director of faculty, Bogan Junior College; Leslie I. McCord of Blue Island, retired president, First National Bank of Blue Island; John Rodgers, president, Palos Historical Society; James Quinlan of Evergreen Park, Illinois Bell Telephone Company executive; Rev. Paul Sanders of Palos Park; Harry Sklenar of Argo, editor Desplaines Valley News; James Sweeney of Oak Lawn, owner Oak Lawn News Agency; and Wesley A. Volp of Blue Island, managing editor, Blue Island Sun Standard.

The name to be selected will have some relevance for the district, such as an historical event, geographic place, or a person who has made a contribution to education. However, it was felt by members of the committee that the name of no living person should be recommended. Lacking any of the above, a name relevant to the state or metropolitan area might also be acceptable.

Citizens interested in submitting a name for consideration by the committee are urged to contact their nearest committee member or write to the Name Selection Committee, Junior College District 524, Colonial Building, Suite 2G, 4740 W. 95th St., Oak Lawn, Ill. 60453.

As the next meeting of the group will be held on Jan. 25, names submitted for consideration should be in the committee's hands on or before that date.

Junior College District 524 was established by referendum on Feb. 18, by residents of six southwest suburban high school districts according to the provision of the 1965 Public Junior College Act. The High School districts comprising Junior College District 524 are 217, 218, 220, 229, 230, and 231.

Dirty Air Is Dangerous, Chemist Tells Students

Chemist Joe Prince of the Cook County Air Pollution Control Board told a group of Carl Sandburg High School science and social studies students just how dangerous dirty air can be at a special lecture in the Little Theater.

One of Prince's more startling statements to the teenagers was that "breathing the air in the Chicago area is almost as bad as smoking three packages of cigarettes a day." Prince previously worked as a tox-that soon become covered with soot and dirt from the air.

Prince said that about 35 per cent of the pollutants comes from industrial wastes being poured into the air; 25 per cent comes from burning of incinerators, both home and city; and 40 per cent from automobile exhaust fumes.

"We've now got a law that tells industry to either cut it off or shut it off," Prince said. Ninety per cent of industries visited by Pollution Board inspectors have been cooperative, he said. ologist in the county morgue and helped in almost 15,000 autopsies over the years. "Practically all the lungs we saw were black instead of the healthy pink color they are supposed to be," Prince said. "Only exceptions are very young children," he said.

Air pollution costs each person about $600 a year, Prince estimated. He figured in cleaning bills, running nylons, erosion to buildings and other structures, cleaning of cars, glass, and countless items chairman, Mrs. Kenneth De Ross, secretary-treasurer and three directors, Vernon Harvey, Shirley Hoerman and Margaret Loebe. The nominating committee consists of Tom Charlton chairman, Phyllis Hartneck, Charlotte Jessen, Joan Hoffman and Charles Nicoson.

The meeting Monday is for the express purpose of bringing together those persons who want to have a part in selecting candidates for the grade school board.

This is not the only way of selecting candidates for the school board, it was pointed out. Any citizen can be a candidate if he desires and submits a nominating petition, which should be obtainable at the school office.

Members of the board whose terms expire this April are, Marguerite Carroll, the board secretary; Edgar Harbison and Mitchell Nurczyk.

ADVISER, HORTICULTURE

Gardening is a developing art that is constantly progressing. Each year at this time the All American Selections are announced and from this list of outstanding new varieties gardeners select flowers for next years gardens. All American test grounds are located throughout the United States. Two of them are in the Chicago area and in fact the Vice-President of the 29 flower judges is Carl F. Dietz of the Vaughan's Seed Company in Downers Grove. Chicago area gardeners can certainly thus have plenty of confidence in the All American Selections.

For the first time geraniums grown from seed are among the selections. Silver medals go to the Carefree Scarlet, an orange-red, and Carefree Deep Salmon. Carefree Bright Pink received a bronze medal. Seeds are scarified or mechanically scratched so that water can readily penetrate the hard seed coat and induce germination. When an inch high the geranium seedlings can be set in 2-1/4 inch pots. Unlike geraniums from cuttings these geraniums branch without being pinched or pruned.

Seed is scarce this year and culture from seed is frankly, difficult. Therefore gardeners will receive the greatest satisfaction by purchasing started plants next May and then setting them directly in their gardens.

In addition to the unusual geraniums a zinnia, Wild Cherry is another winner. This cactus-flowered hybrid grows to about 2-1/2 feet tall. It should display well in an intermediate border.

Gardeners that like to dry flowers for winter arrangements will want to grow a few plants of Golden Triumph. This is a plumed type celosia that is similar to the previous All American winner Forest Fire.

If you like to start some of your flowers by sowing the seed directly in the ground you'll be pleased with the two new marigolds: First Lady and Orange Jubilee. Both are the new hedge types. This means that they are compact, bushy in habit and grow 18-24 inches high. The large double carnation type flowers are borne profusely on top of the foliage much earlier than other varieties of the tall marigolds.

Verbena Blaise is a rather sparkling flower. Some florists in the brilliant scarlet flower head show a speck of a white, but in general this is a very vibrant all red flower. It's also a dwarf plant of about six inches in height but has a 12 to 15 inch spread. It will make a good edging or border plant. Based on height and habit of growth it would be possible to plant a complete garden of All American winners this summer.

Tax Sales Under Scavenger Act Set For Will County

A tentative schedule for the sale of some 3,260 parcels of real estate in Will County on which taxes have not been paid for 10 years or more has been set.

The schedule calls for the sales to begin Jan. 24 and to continue once a week through April 17. The sales are to be conducted in the respective townships in which the delinquent property is located.

State's Attorney George E. Sangmeister met with County Treasurer Clarence Lipman and County Clerk Clara Hartley Woodard to set up the schedule and to discuss procedures. The sales are to be conducted under what is known as the "Scavenger Act." It is a means for getting the delinquent tax properties back on the tax rolls so that more tax monies can be realized.

Altho the act was passed into law in 1943, this is the first time it is being put to use in Will County.

Sangmeister said he will serve as the auctioneer whenever possible inasmuch as the County Board of Supervisors failed to set up funds to hire a professional. He said the properties will be sold by book and parcel number only. The location of the property and the size will not be given. Individuals interested in a parcel are advised to make their investigation prior to the sale.

Successful bidders will be required to pay cash or give a check for the amount of the bid. A receipt will be furnished by the county treasurer. The county clerk in turn will issue a certificate of purchase and the bidder will be required to pay the current taxes.

The county has the right to bid on the properties also.

It will take several years before a tax deed can be issued as the result of the sale. Certain legal procedures must be followed in the meantime.

Other counties which have taken advantage of the act previously found that many parcels were returned to the active tax list by this means, Sangmeister said.

The four townships in which sales will be conducted this month are: Jan. 24 at 10 a.m. at the fire barn in Troy Twp; Jan. 31 at 10 a.m. at the Frankfort Village Hall; at the Village Hall at New Lenox at 1:30 p.m. on Jan. 31 and at the Homer Town Hall on Cedar Road at 4 p.m. on Jan. 31. Troy has 17 parcels; Frankfort 9; New Lenox 9 and 5 are in Homer.

The sale in Joliet with its 1,100 parcels has been called for April 17 at 10 a.m. Crete Twp. which has the largest number of such properties -- 1,300 is to have its sale March 27.

Other dates on the tentative calendar along with the number of parcels involved are:

Feb. 7, 10 a.m., Wesley, 130; Feb. 14 and 15, 10 a.m., Reed, 470; Feb. 21, 10 a.m., Lockport, 110; Feb. 28, 10:30 a.m., Wilmington, 60; Feb. 28, 4 p.m., Wilton, 1; March 6, 10 a.m., Peotone, 4; March 6, 11:30 a.m., Will, 1; March 6, 1:30 p.m., Monee, 1; March 6, 3:30 p.m., Manhattan, 2; March 13, 1:30 p.m., Custer, 5; March 13, 10 a.m., Channahon, 13; March 20, 10 a.m., DuPage, 8; March 20, 3:30 p.m., Wheatland, 5; and March 20, 1:30 p.m., Plainfield, 8.

Requirements Listed For Office On School Board

MRS. EDWARD HOVI
Telephone: 479-5740

The annual election for member of the Summit Hill Board will be held April 13 at the school, with the first public notification being published in the local paper on Jan. 29. The first day for filing petitions to run for the board will be Feb. 28.

The requirements for running for office are the same as for voting: (1) a citizen of the United States, (2) a resident of the state for one year, (3) a resident of the county for 90 days, (4) a resident of the district for 30 days, and (5) a registered voter.

The special education classes for the Lincoln-Way area have a school board composed of one representative from each of the schools involved in the program. Our representative is Mr. Joe Farnham. This is an appointed board.

The teachers who have been attending a reading course at Lincoln-Way School given by Northern Illinois University have now finished.

The school board banquet, held at Lincoln-Way had as guest speaker, Mr. Voshall, superintendent of public instruction in Springfield. Mr. Voshall is retired as superintendent of schools in Pittsfield, Ill. near Springfield. This gives him an awareness of the problems faced by education and how educational matters have changed over the years.

There will be a teachers institute held at Lincoln-Way on Monday, Jan. 22 with an excellent program planned. There will be no school for the schools in the district on that day.

On Jan. 18, the second quarter of the school year will end. This will be a time for re-evaluation by the teachers and any necessary modification of the program for the remainder of the year. This should also be a time for the parents to check carefully on the progress of their children.

The established detention program, although a nuisance for everyone, is proving to be a success in that the number of detentions is lessening.

The financial state of the school's budget is holding pretty well with the need for anticipation warrents being held at bay as long as possible. The number of students in the school as of last week is now 449.

Miss Wanda Gorka, the third grade teacher has tendered her verbal resignation, which has been accepted. Mrs. Peggy Manola has been hired to replace her. Mrs. Manola had been the permanent substitute teacher.

Mr. Patrick Gavin, the sixth grade teacher is starting a chorus program, which will include the fifth through the eighth grade. Tryouts will be held after school hours so that it will not interfere with classes.

Mothers, please remind your children that the street is for cars and the sidewalk is for children. It can become dangerous with the slippery streets for children to walk down the street.

The monthly hot dog day will be held Wednesday, Jan. 24, with the orders being taken today. The remaining hot dog days will be held on the fourth Wednesday of the month instead of the fourth Tuesday.

The boy scouts spent last week end at old Camp Morris with fifteen attending including the two scoutmasters. There is another campout planned for the week end of Jan. 23, 24, 25 at the new Camp Morris at "Red Gulp Gully". The boys will all have a shot of Red Eye (hot chocolate) at the Red Eye Saloon.

There is also planned to have a polar outing in February at Camp Morris. The polar outing is held in tents and with sleeping bags.

North Central College is a co-educational, liberal arts college located in Naperville, 29 miles west of Chicago. The college is in its 107th year.

Under the new master plan, North Central's 53-acre campus features several recently constructed buildings including new dormitories, library facilities and a college union building. Construction on a new

$2 million science center will begin this spring.

Students from across the nation and several foreign countries choose North Central as their college.

Eighty-three percent of the students are residents on campus. Total enrollment is approximately 860. North Central graduates are accepted readily into leading graduate schools and NCC ranks fourth among the 35 liberal arts colleges in Illinois and in the top 15 percent in the nation in the production of scholars who earn Ph.D. degrees.

Every student at North Central takes courses in the liberal arts core curriculum, in the fields of the Humanities, the Social and Behavioral Sciences, the Natural Sciences and Mathematics, and the Creative Arts.

In this required curriculum every student is provided with basic knowledge in philosophy, literature, languages, the natural sciences, mathematics, the social sciences, religion and the creative arts.

Typing Rusty? We'll Help You

"What is your typing speed?"

"I don't know..." "Well, I used to..." "I haven't typed in a long time..."

There is no way to estimate. You must be tested under actual conditions by someone with a stop watch in hand.

This is just one of the services of the Testing Bureau, Chicago Professional College, 7 West Madison St., Chicago.

For a free bulletin, HOW TO PREPARE FOR INTERVIEWS AND TESTS, write Chicago Professional College, 7 West Madison, Chicago or call STate 2-9887.

KNOW YOUR TYPING SPEED? -- Many job-hunters are embarrassed when asked their speed at the typewriter or with a steno pad. Experts at the Chicago Professional College say there is no way to estimate. You must be tested under actual working conditions with a stopwatch clocking your progress. It's something that every job aspirant should know because being unsure or evasive can result in that coveted job slipping through your fingers. By contacting Chicago Professional College, 7 West Madison, at STate 2-9887, you'll get a free booklet, "How to Prepare for Interviews and Tests." And they'll help you do it, too.

"Character and Scholarship" for 75 years will be celebrated during 1968 to mark Aurora College's diamond anniversary.

Tuesday, Jan. 9, was the anniversary of the opening of the forerunner of the Aurora senior college. The forerunner opened at Mendota on Jan. 9, 1893.

Activities with religious emphasis are also projected during February. Films, drama and dialogue are among events being arranged.

April will find a cluster of cultural happenings scheduled. On April 2, the college will sponsor an appearance of the New York Pro Musica at Aurora's Franklin Junior High School. The widely acclaimed group includes 10 musicians of medieval voice and instruments.

College choir members will sing in a return engagement with the Fox Valley Symphony Orchestra on Sunday, April 7. Director Roger K. Parolini will lead the 58-voice group in a 7:30 p.m. concert at West Aurora High School. The event will mark the choir's second annual appearance with the symphony.

May events will focus around baccalaureate and commencement services to be held May 19 and 20. Details of these programs and a 50-year alumni reunion will be announced.

After the summer recess, plans call for fall activities to include a cultural event, a religious event and a series of major academic events.

Dr. Crouse said that most observance events will be open to the public without charge.

"Snow was falling in dense clouds. The wind was blowing a gale. It was a terrific, blinding Illinois blizzard."

This described the opening of Aurora College 75 years ago. An early college yearbook continued, "Only the most urgent necessity compelled the boldest to venture out of doors."

"But this day had been set before as the time when the first classes of Mendota Seminary should meet, January 9, 1893. Just three of the prospective students were at the hall; and they, with a half-dozen instructors, inaugurated that day a new institution of learning," the account reads.

The Mendota forerunner of Aurora College opened its doors after 20 years of discussion in the Advent Christian denomination. Some members opposed establishing a school, citing a basic belief in the early second coming of Christ. Others, stressing a regular college for education of Advent Christian youth in a Christian atmosphere, prevailed.

Advent Christians in Sparta, Wis., Baraboo, Wis., Auburn, Ill., and Minneapolis, Minn., petitioned for the school's location. Several church elders seized initiative in 1892 and purchased Mendota's Wartburg Seminary, a building on five acres of land deemed outgrown by its Lutheran administrators.

A year later the college name had been changed to Mendota College after an expansion of the curriculum. The first college student was graduated in June, 1894, with a Bachelor of Science degree. Receiving the degree was a transfer student, Grace N. Sargent. Three other students were dressed in academic garb so that an official graduation might be held.

Mendota College grew so in its first 15 years that by 1908 the class building and dormitories were inadequate for students. A fund was begun for a new building and also caused the question of relocating to be examined.

Today the school enrolls 1,375 students, is an accredited senior college of liberal arts and an active member of the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

Wyler School Molds The Boy; Future Man

EVANSVILLE, Wis. -- If you have a young lad who years to wear a military uniform, the Wyler School here bears serious consideration.

Wyler is located on a beautiful wooded 12-acre campus on the outskirts of Evansville. Grades begin at kindergarten and continue through the eighth.

There are three large fireproof brick buildings, surrounded by fine old trees, gardens and several athletic fields for boys.

Wyler School is interested in the boy as an individual.

Most important, it operates its entire program on the assumption that no two boys are alike and its first purpose is to develop the potential abilities and the personality of each boy to their greatest fruition.

Wyler School offers a top academic faculty, chosen for their spiritual leadership. Character guidance is stressed.

Each boy, upon entering and through his school life at Wyler, is given standardized tests to determine his ability and aptitudes and also to serve as a scientific basis for guiding him in school work and his life work.

Wyler School maintains a modified form of military training for teaching such habits as correct posture, obedience to orders, duties and details. Boys at Wyler also acquire the habit of neatness, good manners, loyalty.

But it's not all spit-and-polish.

Boys are given instruction in nature, music, carpentry, reading, chess, arts and crafts. He will enjoy camping trips and overnight hiking.

Whatever he does at Wyler, he will be making good use of his time.

A doctor and nurse are on call constantly and the best and most nutritious food that money can buy is served in our pleasant dining room.

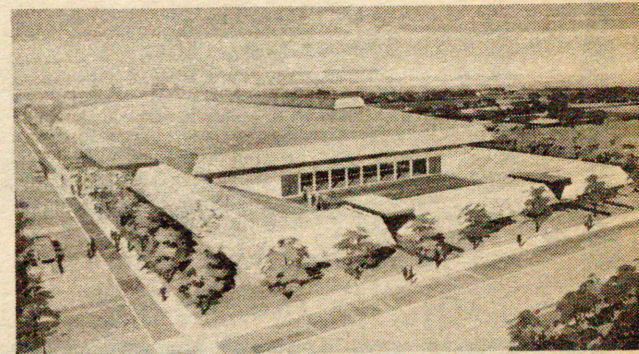

Wyler offers your son a blueprint for successful living, with the accent on health and safety -- and homelike, happy days.

Most Kids Non-Hippy

College students are more involved in cleaning up the present world than living in a hippy world, Illinois Wesleyan University President Lloyd M. Bertholf says.

"We hear so much about the 'hippy' element on our campuses these days, that some people seem to think all students live in another world," he said.

"But I assure you that most of them are very much immersed in this present world."

NEW GYM FOR EUREKA -- This new physical education facility at Eureka College is the goal of a funding campaign just launched last month. Needed is $625,000 which will be supplemented by a federal grant of $263,000.

Register at Elmhurst

General registration for the Elmhurst college evening session will be held Friday, Jan. 26, from 6 to 9 p.m., and Saturday, Jan. 27, from 9 a.m. to noon, in Hammerschmidt Memorial chapel on the campus.

Mail registration for former students will begin Jan. 8 and extend to Jan. 25, inclusive.

The Elmhurst college evening session, in accordance with its established pattern of providing a varied and interesting curriculum, is offering three new courses for the second semester, as follows:

Speech 231 -- Phonetics. This two-hour course in speech correction will be taught by one of the regular day school faculty members and will emphasize training in the recognition of standard and substandard variation of American sounds, analysis of the formation of these sounds and practice in the use of the International Phonetic Alphabet.

Use of the Phonetic Alphabet for purposes of transcription, reading and identifying dialectical differences, normal and defective speech patterns are the aims of this course.

It is one of the elementary courses for the student interested in entering the speech correction curriculum, and offers two hours of college credit.

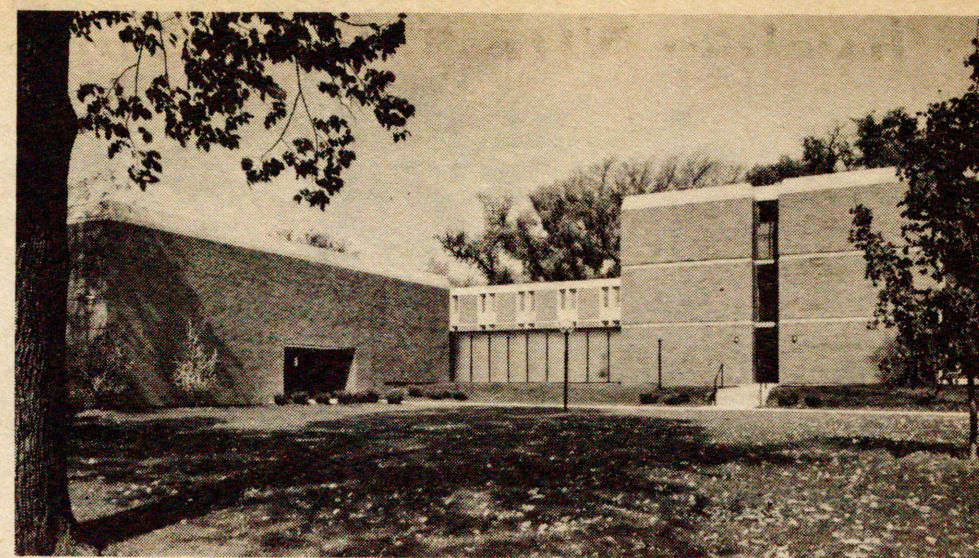

Art 211--Ceramics. There is widespread interest in ceramics today and many people find it an exciting hobby. This course provides an opportunity to learn how the professionals do it and to get a real understanding of clay and how to handle it for varied effects.

Students will learn the difference between pottery, stoneware and porcelain; the process of firing; and about glazes and their chemistry. Those interested in the history of art will gain insight into the great traditions of ceramics of the past. The course offers three hours of credit.

Sociology 413--Introduction to Social Work. This course is designed to meet the needs of persons interested in becoming knowledgeable about the field of social work.

Since the need for social services, including welfare, seems destined to increase rather markedly in the foreseeable future, this is a subject area about which the informed adult should be concerned.

Undergraduate students who are considering a social work vocation are urged to include this course in their curriculum. It will be taught by Mr. Gregory Bellow, who has

Physics; Nite School News At St. Procop

The Physics department of St. Procopius College, Lisle, Ill., recently received a donation of certain electronic equipment valued at $7,800 from Nuclear Data, Inc., Palatine, Ill.

In making this valuable contribution to the college Stewart Havens, treasurer of Nuclear Data, said, "We forecast that the greater Chicago region will not only become the national center in the development of nuclear and electronic material but that this significant industry will be greatly supported through the continued growth of academic institutions in the area."

Registration time at St. Procopius College, Lisle, Ill., for the spring semester evening adult courses for men and women is rapidly approaching, it was pointed out by Dr. James A. Prince, director of evening sessions.

He said that for the convenience of everyone registration will be held in the administration building on Saturday, Jan. 20 from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m., as well as on Monday and Tuesday evenings, January 22 and 23, from 4:00 to 6:00 p.m. and from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. He said that classes will begin on Wednesday evening Jan. 24.

Prince added that a new brochure has just been printed which contains complete information on all of the courses available at the evening sessions, including a registration form return postcard, which may be obtained at no charge by telephoning Dr. Prince at 968-7270, dropping him a note, or leaving a message with the college switchboard.

Chrystal Ball Course

What problems will the nation's leaders face in the year 1988? Will advances in science and technology be as great as they have been since 1948?

These are some of the questions 60 Illinois Wesleyan University students are trying to answer in a unique, new sociology course, "Sociology of 1988."

"This is the only college course ever taught with the sole purpose of studying society 20 years in the future," said Dr. Max Pape, associate professor of sociology at IWU.

The course was first offered in Wesleyan's 1967 January Short Term.

Launching of a funding campaign for the new Physical Education Facility in December was the third major event on the Eureka College Campus this school year.

The Physical Education Facility will cost $808,000, according to the estimates of the architects, Richardson, Seaverns, Scheeler and Associates of Champaign.

Sept. 28, Governor Ronald Reagan of California, a Eureka graduate of 1932, was speaker for the dedication of the Library. He was introduced by Illinois U.S. Senator Everett Dirksen.

1968 Frosh Class Small One at IWU

The freshman class at Illinois Wesleyan University next fall will be the smallest in 15 years.

Dr. Lloyd M. Bertholf, President of IWU, says the enrollment for 1968-69 will be frozen at its present level of about 1,550 because of a lack of dormitory space. Lee Short, director of admission, said Wednesday that the school will accept 385 freshmen and 40 transfers for the 1968-69 school year.

"This will be our smallest incoming group in 15 years for all schools of the university. We have academic facilities for 2,200. Because of Wesleyan's concern for the individual and controlled housing facilities, enrollment must be maintained at the current level for at least one year," he said. A freeze of federal funds for such projects has checked plans for new dormitories.

President Bertholf told the board that IWU still plans to reach an enrollment of 2,000 in 10 years.

The Board voted to continue the school's Twelfth Decade Advance building program through 1970, listing these four priority projects: renovation of Presser Hall, home of the School of Music; building of an annex for Presser Hall; construction of a new building for the School of Art; and construction of the new Mark Evans observatory.

Head-on Collision Fatal To Orland, New Lenox Man

Funeral services were held on Sunday, Jan. 7 for two area men killed late Wednesday afternoon Jan. 3 in a head-on collision on U.S. 45.

The victims were Thomas A. Brown, 54, 1143 Vine St., New Lenox, and Bruce Dale Jones, 19, of 10248 Hibiscus Sr., Orland Park.

The accident occurred a block south of 119th St. near Palos Park. State police said Jones' south bound car crossed the center line and struck Brown's car.

Brown had worked in the mailing dept. of the Chicago Tribune for the past 10 years. Before that, he worked for Cuneo Press in Chicago for 25 years. Born in Symsonia, Ky., he had lived at Chicago for several years before moving to New Lenox in 1947.

He was a member of the Mailers Union and Modern Woodmen of the World.

Surviving are his wife, Meredith, nee Richard; a daughter, Laura, and a son, Daniel; his father, Noble B. Brown; and four sisters, Mayme Yopp, Neva Thomas, Joy Vaughn and Ima Jean Rudd, all of Kentucky, and a brother, Edwin of Chicago. Removal was to the Baskerville Chapel, where services were held on Sunday, Jan. 7, at 2 p.m.

The other victim, Bruce Dale Jones, 19, was employed as a carpenter helper, and is survived by his parents, Lillie Mae and William; five brothers, Houston, Arthur, Buford, Richard and Kenny; two sisters, Sharon and Trudy.

He was removed to the Schmaedeke Funeral Chapel 10701 S. Harlem, Worth, to the Margin Funeral Home, Clanton, Ala., where services were held on Sunday, Jan. 7.

Interment was in Chestnut Creek Cemetery at Clanton.

Teach Ceramics To Will Co. 4-H

Five persons from Will County took part in an arts and crafts district workshop sponsored by the University of Illinois Cooperative Extension Service for leaders in the 4-H program. The two-day workshop was held this week at DeKalb.

Mrs. Edward Berens of New Lenox and Mrs. Gallan Holloway of Lockport helped to conduct the workshop which will be on ceramics and mosaics. These two women took part in a state workshop on the project last summer. Mrs. William Bettenhausen of Frankfort and Mrs. Melvin Conner of Manhattan, both Will County 4-H leaders, and Miss Barbara Harris, Assistant Extension Adviser Home Economics were the Will County representatives at the meeting.

Leaders of Will County 4-H clubs will have the opportunity to learn from these five resource persons at a county school on design - mosaics and ceramics on Jan. 30, starting at 9:30 a.m. in the Farm Bureau Building, 100 Manhattan Rd., Joliet.

The district workshop is part of the second stage in revising, up-grading and up-dating the 4-H arts and crafts program. Last year printing-block printing, silk screening, relief printing, and stenciling and stitchery - embroidery, creative stitchery were completely rewritten and training provided for leaders at a similar workshop. The emphasis in all the units, including Mosiacs and Ceramics of the Arts and Crafts project is on creative design.

Members taking the Arts and Crafts project will have their exhibits judged Saturday, April 6 at Francis 4-H Field, New Lenox, as part of the Handicraft and Town and Country Art Show sponsored by the Cooperative Extension Service, and is open to the public.

Snow Depth Can Be Problem To Drivers

The depth of winter snow often is proportionate to the depth of a motorist's misery, particularly when it comes to parking.

The Chicago Motor Club -AAA offers these suggestions for keeping the snow parking problem from making you miserable:

--Whenever possible, back out of a parking space in your own tracks. It would be a good idea when entering a parking space to roll your car forward and backward a few times to clear a place for an easy exit.

--Do not turn your wheels sharply either in backing out or pulling forward in heavy snow. This impedes progress.

--Make sure your transmission is in low gear. Rapid acceleration will result only in spinning wheels and no forward motion.

--For better traction in snow or on icy pavement, throw a pair of old skid chains beneath your rear wheels before attempting to pull out. If you do not have skid chains, a bucket of cinders, salt or any abrasive, such as burlap bags or old rugs, will provide added traction.

--In the evening, do not park in the same area in which you were stuck in the morning without first thoroughly salting or sanding the space.

Servicemen Get Break From The Post Office -Special Airlift Rate

Parcels weighing up to 30 pounds have been airlifted at new low rates to Army and Fleet Post Offices serving American military personnel thruout the world since Jan. 7, according to Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien.

The air lift service is provided on a space available basis upon payment of domestic parcel post surface rates plus a flat $1 fee, O'Brien said.

"This major expansion of airlift will mean much faster delivery on packages sent to our servicemen stationed far from home," the Postmaster General said.

To qualify for airlift at the new special rate, a package must weigh no more than 30 pounds and be not more than 60 inches in combined length and girth.

The airlift service is available on packages mailed to all military personnel at APO and FPO addresses overseas, and in Alaska, Hawaii and Puerto Rico. It applies to parcels mailed by service personnel from these offices.

On parcels going overseas, payment of the $1 fee will mean air transportation all the way - from the point of mailing to the port of embarkation, and from there to the overseas base. In the past, to get this service the postal patron had to pay air parcel post rates.

In many instances the new airlift rates are considerably below comparable air parcel post charges. For example:

A mother in Chicago sending a 15-pound package to her son in Vietnam will pay $4.30 for the new airlift service. The air parcel post rate for the same package is $12.08.

A five-pound package will be airlifted from New York to Vietnam for $2.45. The air parcel rate is $4.08.

A 10-pound package going from New York to Frankfurt will cost $1.55 under the airlift service. The air parcel rate for the same package is $5.

The airlift rate for a 6-pound package from San Francisco to Vietnam will be $1.45. The air parcel rate is $3.08.

Mr. O'Brien pointed out, however, that it will not always be to the mailer's advantage to use the airlift service. In some instances, depending on the weight of the package and the distance it must be hauled in the United States, air parcel post rates will be lower than the charges for the airlift service.

O'Brien advised postal patrons to check with their local post office for information on the best service to use in mailing parcels to military personnel overseas.

"Here I zoomed in on Mildred talking."

Erosion Toll Heavy

Maintaining the capacity of soil to produce food is one of the main objectives of a national soil conservation program, according to the U. S. Soil Conservation Service AIB 321, "Our American Land". Stopping sediment that is filling our streams and reservoirs, planning for an orderly urban expansion and community development, and providing new recreational facilities are other objectives.

The publication points out that America's farmers are producing food more efficiently than any place in the world and because of this we have the highest standard of living anywhere.

But this abundance is not being produced at no cost to the land. Techniques that increase yields do not necessarily control erosion. Much of the high crop production comes at a high cost in tons of soil washed from the fields. Soil conservation work on the nation's farm and ranch land is only about a third done. And that which already in effect needs constant maintenance and flexibility to adapt to changing needs and technology.

Copies of "Our American Land" may be obtained from the Will-South Cook Soil and Water Conservation at 100 Manhattan Rd., Joliet. The telephone number is 815-723-5078.

Starting Sunday, Jan. 21, the local fire department is announcing a new tone for the fire siren. When the siren is blown a three minute solid tone will be heard instead of the increasing and decreasing sound heretofore being used. The new sound will continue through the winter months to determine if the firemen can hear the call more readily.

Merchants Finally Cash In Blue Chips

Victory over the Varsity Shop Blue Chips was a long time coming for the Orland Park Merchants who had not beaten the Chips for two years. But determination and desire were not to be denied Thursday night (Jan. 11) as the Merchants scrambled to a hard fought 107 to 104 victory. On several occasions, the Merchants opened up leads of from four to ten points, only to see them melt away. It was 53 all at half-time.

With 2:38 remaining in the game and the Merchants leading by one point, Bob Stoy grabbed a rebound off the Blues board and passed to Charlie Brown who went into a stall. The Blue Chips were frantic and fouled Stoy who coolly canned a pair of free throws to ice the victory. Don Schook led the Merchant scoring with 31 points. Al O'Brien, Blue Chip forward, was high for the game with 43.

Other scoring: Merchants, Henson 10-4-24; Brown 7-2-16; Stoy 4-7-15; Smith 4-3-11 and Featherstone 5-0-10. Blue Chips, Landry 7-0-14; Smith 3-8-14; Haliberg 4-5-13; Krumbien 5-1-11; Deiany 3-2-8.

The Merchants play again tonight in Sandburg gym at 8 o'clock. Opponents tonight will be the Old Town Mustangs.

Lorenz Discusses Urban Transportation Planning

Director Francis S. Lorenz of the Illinois Department of Public Works and Buildings, and his guest, Ralph D. Brown Jr., deputy chief highway engineer of the Division of Highways, discussed the effect of the Federal Highway Act of 1962 on urban transportation planning in Illinois, in a radio report from Springfield this week.

The Division of Highways has developed street and highway plans for most of the major cities in Illinois. The director pointed out that all these plans have been discussed and evaluated by local officials.

Mr. Brown reported that the Federal Highway act gave impetus to transportation planning in all urban areas having a population of more than 50,000. The act specifies that highway departments throughout the country must develop along with local officials, a continuous, comprehensive, cooperative transportation planning process for such urban areas.

A provision of the act specifies that no federal aid highway funds could be spent by any state in any of these urban areas unless the improvements were consistent within this cooperative planning program.

Illinois has twelve urbanized areas, said Director Lorenz. They are: Chicago, Peoria, Rockford, Aurora, Joliet (which include the area towns) Champaign, Urbana, Decatur, Bloomington, Normal and Springfield. In addition, the director pointed out, we are involved in two bi-state areas: the Quad - City area which includes Rock Island, Moline, and East Moline along with Bettendorf and Davenport, Iowa, and the St. Louis area of which East St. Louis and other cities in this area in Illinois and St. Louis and other cities in Missouri are a part. A study is also being conducted in the Dubuque, Iowa area which includes the community of East Dubuque in Illinois.

Studies using the latest techniques, including electronic computers, are now underway in all these areas. The studies are directed by policy committees composed of elected officials and representatives of the Division of Highways. Technical committees representing the highway division and local agencies also participate in the direction of these studies.

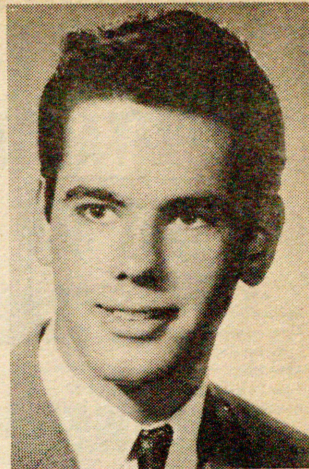

Mr. Brown reported that both the Division of Highways and the local agencies are finding these studies an excellent vehicle to evaluate urban growth and an understanding of mutual problems in the development of transportation systems for our expanding urban areas. Their advice is of the greatest help.

Once a highway is constructed, it frequently is difficult and expensive to change it, and for this reason, it is of utmost importance that the original design of the highway serves the public interest, said Director Lorenz.

Realizing that the public can contribute to highway planning, the Illinois Division of Highways holds public hearings before any contract involving state or federal funds are awarded, said Director Lorenz.

Director Lorenz pointed out that the public owes a great debt to the community leaders who are giving of their time to help in planning highways in their area. These civic minded officials understand the local problems involved; therefore DOUGLAS SHREFFLER, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Shreffler, 215 S. Cedar Rd., New Lenox, has returned home from Tulsa, Okla., where he has completed a course at the Spartan Aeronautical school.

After spending the holidays here, he will leave Jan. 15 for the University of Hawaii, where he will teach flying week-ends, while going to school there.

Comes To "Bounty" Country

The telephone has come to Pitcairn Island, that small British colony in the Pacific first settled by mutineers of the H. M. S. Bounty in 1790.

According to "The World's Telephones 1967," an annual statistical review just released by the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, the 96 residents of Pitcairn are now served by a network of 15 phones.

At the other end of the scale, the number of telephones in the United States rose to 98.8 million at the beginning of 1967, and the nation's 100 millionth phone was installed later during the year. U. S. phones represent about half the world's total.

The figures in "The World's Telephones" are as of Jan. 1, 1967. It takes almost a year to gather statistics from telephone administrations and companies around the world.

The book reports that the number of telephones in the world continued to climb rapidly last year, increasing by 13.4 million, a gain of 6.9 percent. This brought the total of the world's telephones to 208.5 million at the beginning of 1967, double the number in service eleven years ago.

The volume of overseas calls continued to soar. Calls between the U. S. mainland and overseas points totaled 9.9 million in 1966, an increase of 22 percent over the preceding year.

To handle increasing overseas traffic, undersea cable capacity is being expanded, AT&T said. The first transistorized cable, which can carry 720 simultaneous conversations, will be placed in service between the U. S. mainland and the Virgin Islands by mid-1968. It will be linked to a cable with a 144-voice capacity between the Virgin Islands and the Dominican Republic. A fifth transatlantic cable -- transistorized and capable of handling 720 conversations -- has been proposed between the U. S. and the Iberian Peninsula.

When the first transatlantic cable was placed in 1965, it could carry only 36 conversations. Improved terminal equipment now enables it to carry 48 simultaneous conversations.

AT&T also said more satellite circuits are planned across the Atlantic and Pacific. More than 230 such circuits between this country and overseas points are now being used for telephone service.

By the start of this year, Rumania had become the 31st country with a half-million, leading the United Kingdom (11.4 million), West Germany (9.5 million), the U.S. S.R. (8.4 million), Canada (7.9 million), and Italy (6.5 million).

This country retained its lead in telephones per 100 population with 49.9. Sweden was second with 47.9, followed by New Zealand, 39.9; Switzerland, 39.3; Canada, 38.9; and Denmark, 29.1. In telephoner talk, however, Canada kept its world title, averaging 664 conversation per person during 1966. The U. S. again ran second, averaging 648.

For the first time in several years, AT&T was able to include figures on Moscow. The Soviet capital has 850,000 telephones for its 6 1/2 million citizens, a ratio of 13.1 per 100 population. New York City, by way of comparison, has 67.1 per 100 population.

AT&T said that the Moscow figures were obtained from one of the press wire services.

Announces New Guide For Students Seeking Financial Assistance

Ray Page, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, today announced a new guide providing information for financial assistance to Illinois youths seeking college scholarships has been published.

The publication, "Financial Aids To Illinois Students," is a combined effort of the American Legion "Need A Lift" program and the Department of Scholarship Services of the state office.

Russell P. Bieritz, Department Commander, Illinois American Legion, said the Legion will make every effort to assist in helping the youth of Illinois find educational opportunities. He said "The Legion is proud of the part it has taken in the publication of this book and its association with the Office of Superintendent of Public Instruction and Illinois colleges and universities and more than 200 national organizations that cooperated in this worthwhile project."

Superintendent Page said the book is the most complete up-to-date guide available and is a fine reference source of information and careers, and a guide to millions of dollars available to youths who are seeking college careers.

Superintendent Page said "The information in this publication will be of valuable assistance to both parents and students planning careers. It is never too early to make plans for educational advancement, in fact, the freshman year of high school is not too early to do so."

Superintendent Page is encouraging parents and students to visit high school guidance counselors for assistance in educational plans and careers.

Copies of the publication are being mailed to counselors of public and private schools, community library centers and other organizations working with students on educational planning.

hints for homeowners

ADVISER
- HORTICULTURE -

How'd you like to do some different unusual gardening this winter. I'm suggesting a window-sill herb garden. Salads, soups, stews and sauces can all be seasoned with herbs grown on your own window sill. There they'll provide eye appeal and eventually taste appeal.

For now, let's start with parsley, chives and sweet marjoram for mild or savory herbs and rosemary, sage and thyme as the strong or pungent types.

Parsley, according to my wife, makes garnishes for salads, soups, potatoes, stews and meats. Chives are good in soups, salads and potato chip dips. In fact I've consumed so much of this preparation that I've about lost the battle of the bulge. Chives adds a very delicate onion-like flavor.

Rosemary, is good in either sprig or leaf form. You can recognize it by its dark green foliage and in April by its small blue flowers. It's used for meat, sauces and soups.

A prime flavor in turkey stuffings is sage. And for something with a real earthy appeal try it dried, in the whole, or crushed dried leaf, on pork chops. Ummmh! Thyme, the last member of window-sill garden also has dark green leaves and is good in soups, omelets and gravy.

WORTH TALKING ABOUT

"A public that can read and understand the printed word will help and grapple with, and put to good use, the flood of knowledge and information our communications media are pouring forth every day. To gain the assurance that this material will be worthwhile, however, we must rededicate ourselves to the content of our communication rather than the means of our communication."

Arthur R. Murphy, Jr.
President and Chief Operating Officer

"We have been making very fine progress in the general task of making equal employment opportunity a live reality, but we must keep everlastingly at it with continued in-company training, moving up the promotion ladder those who qualify for advancement so that still more jobs will be available for those who are just entering the industrial labor force."

Throughout the Joliet area, and especially in downtown Joliet PROGRESS and GROWTH is the theme as new buildings rise, new businesses start, new industry moves into town. Truly this is an era of accelerated progress, and one of the many forces behind it - helping to stimulate this growth - is Joliet Federal Savings and Loan Association.

The large sums of money placed into circulation throughout this area by our continued high level of home construction loans during 1967 has helped to stimulate this progress. Each new home constructed sets into action, right here in your community, a corresponding amount of money. The important part of this money cycle is that you, your friends and neighbors all participate and benefit as the money continually adds to the prosperity, growth, stability, economic virility and beauty of Will County.

In the area of savings it takes little imagination to picture the vast amount of products and services these savings and earnings bought and paid for during the past year. During 1967, Joliet Federal Savers earned over $5,618,600.00 in dividends alone.

And each year it grows larger as more and more people throughout this area place their confidence and trust in Joliet Federal.
